What you'll find in the 2020 GAAFR edition:

- Updates for 25 GASB Statements and 9 Implementation Guides issued since the 2012 GAAFR, including: Pensions, OPEB, Fair Value, Tax Abatements, Fiduciary Activities, Leases.
- Governmental Accounting Standards Board (GASB) literature references changed to cite the GASB Codification.
- New/expanded chapters on Fair Value and Investments and on Environmental Obligations.
- Reordered accounting and financial reporting chapters for a more logical flow: Concepts → Basic Financial Statements, including Note Disclosures → RSI → Other Supplementary Information in the financial section of a CAFR → complete CAFR.
- Increased use of illustrative journal entries, including for pension and OPEB, defeasances using existing resources, irrevocable split-interest agreements, leases (lessor and lessee).
- Updated derivative reference rates to Secured Overnight Financing Rate (SOFR) and Effective Federal Funds Rate (EFFR) in place of LIBOR.
- Explanation of answers to the review questions moved to the end of each chapter, immediately following the questions.

This edition has been updated to incorporate all of the guidance of the GASB through GASB Statement No. 91, as well as GFOA's current best practices on accounting, auditing, and financial reporting.

The publication is available as a soft-cover book or e-book as well as the addition of a new subscription.

GFOA Best Practices are recognized by finance officers, elected officials, and other government leaders as the standard for improved financial management of governments. Our suite of best practices, which are free and completely available on gfoa.org, cover accounting, budgeting, capital planning and economic development, debt management, pension and benefit administration, and treasury and investment management. The best practices are developed by GFOA Standing Committees, made up of members recognized by their peers as leaders in the public finance field. GFOA also provides a number of resources specifically designed to assist in the implementation of best practices. For more information or assistance with best practice documents, please go to gfoa.org/bestpractices.

About GFOA

Government Finance Officers Association (GFOA) advances excellence in government finance by providing best practices, professional development, resources, and practical research for more than 21,000+ members and the communities they serve.
